ABOUT ME

Growing up in the enchanting city of Granada, Spain, has ignited my desire to narrate the stories of Al Andalus and Andalucia through design. My profound appreciation for history, art, poetry, and literature has continuously fueled my creativity.

My aspiration has always been to infuse the essence and elegance of literature into my fashion creations, striving to epitomize the Andalusian renaissance by merging tradition with modernity. Through my creations, I honor the poets and artists who have influenced my journey in preserving our cultural legacy.

Belionel is a tribute to the arts through fashion, a revival of legends where femininity and passion resonate in every piece.

THE COL- L E C T I O N

*The Libertad collection is a heartfelt homage to the essence of freedom and love. Throughout history, flowers have stood as an enduring representation of the human desire for freedom and compassion. They embody the exquisite beauty and delicate nature of life, while also embodying the indomitable strength of growth and rejuvenation, which is artfully reflected in most of the collection's designs. Furthermore, the collection draws inspiration from the nostalgic charm of the retro styles prevalent in the sixties and seventies. The dresses exude a captivatingly powerful femininity, crafted from poplin, linen or crepe fabrics.
